Introduction

This leaflet is about adult abuse and what you can do if you are worried that you, or someone you know, may be at risk. It is the right of every adult to live in a safe environment free from abuse. Adults and Communities, and other partner organisations in the London Borough of Barnet are working to make life safer for adults who due to their circumstances are most at risk of being abused, neglected or exploited.

- Please read 'what happens after you report abuse' for more information

Who are we trying to help?

Those adults over 18 who have needs for care and support. This could be because of their age, disability or illness and where they are unable to:

- take care of themselves without help
- stop someone else from harming them or taking advantage of them.

What is abuse

Abuse is when someone does or says things to you to make you feel upset or frightened. You may be too scared to speak out or stop them. You may be abused on purpose, or by someone who may not realise that what they are doing is abusive. Abuse happens when someone has power over you, and you do not agree to what is happening to you. There are different types of abuse:

- Physical Abuse
- Sexual Abuse
- Emotional Abuse
- Financial Abuse
- Neglect
- Discriminatory Abuse
- Domestic Abuse
- Modern Slavery
- Organisational Abuse

What not to do?

- Do not ignore what's going on
- Do not destroy, clean or wipe any evidence that might be used in an enquiry.

What can you do?

Tell someone you trust. Do this as soon as you can.

- If you have concerns about someone, ask what you can do to help
- If you are caring in difficult circumstances, get help early
- Report what is happening.

Physical abuse

This is when someone physically hurts you. Examples of physical abuse can be:

- hitting
- kicking
- pulling hair
- pinching or shaking, or
- giving someone too much medication so they find it difficult to do things.

Sexual abuse

This is when someone makes you do sexual things that make you sad, angry or frightened. Sexual abuse is being touched where you do not want to be touched, such as:

- your private parts
- your bum
- your breasts
- your penis or vagina. Or being made to touch other people in these places.

Emotional abuse

This is when people say bad things to hurt your feelings, shout at you or threaten you. Some examples of emotional abuse include:

- calling you names
- laughing at you
- blaming you for things when it's not your fault
- treating you like a child
- ignoring you

Financial abuse

This is when someone takes your money or belongings without asking. Examples of financial abuse include:

- stealing your money
- being forced to pay for other people's things
- when you don't have a say in how your money is spent.

Where does it happen?

Abuse can happen anywhere

In a house

In a hospital

At work

On a night out

Who can abuse?

Anyone can behave in a way that is abusive. It might be someone you know, such as a carer, family member, or a stranger.

Neglect

Neglect is when your care or support is not enough to meet your needs. Neglect can be:

- feeling cold most of the time
- being hungry most of the time
- having only dirty clothes to wear
- being put in danger.

Discriminatory abuse

This is when people say or do bad things to you, or treat you unfairly because you are different. Discriminatory abuse is being treated unfairly because you:

- have different colour skin
- have a different religion
- are disabled
- are a lesbian or gay
- speak a different language. Or it can be because of your age.

Domestic abuse

Domestic abuse includes any of types of the abuse described above, which takes place between:

- family members,
- sexual partners, or
- girlfriends and boyfriends. This can also include situations where people are forced to marry.

Modern slavery

This is when people are forced to work against their wishes, with no choice about what they do or where they live, for little or no money.

Organisational abuse

This is when you receive poor care in a care home, hospital or in your own home from someone paid to support and provide care for you.
