

Home Support Service Coventry & Warwickshire

Domestic Support, Shopping, Companionship,
Gardening and Short Breaks for Carers.

Improving later life with dignity and independence

Home Support

Home Support provides vital practical support in and around the home to maintain and improve an individual's level of independence.

We can assist you with tasks such as:

- Respite for carers
- Bed changing and laundry
- Meal preparation
- Prescription collection
- Domestic Support
- Well-being calls
- Coffee and a chat
- Assisting to medical appointments and social engagements
- Lawn mowing and weeding
- Shopping - on behalf of, or accompanied by, the individual.

No personal care is provided.

Home Support provides:

- A service that adapts to your changing needs
- Flexible support that can be short or long term and available daily, weekly, or fortnightly for a minimum of one hour
- Competent, trained, and DBS checked Support Workers that are reliable and friendly
- A regular allocated Support Worker to ensure familiarity
- A service Monday to Friday 09:00 - 16:00.

Anyone aged 50+ living in Coventry or Warwickshire can use the Home Support Service.

Hourly rates apply.

“My support worker and I never miss our Tuesday afternoon shopping trips. Even if I'm unwell, they make sure to do the shopping for me.”

“My daughter who is my carer, is able to run errands when the support worker comes round for a coffee. It relieves so much stress for both of us.”
