Scope:

Age UK Hertfordshire is an independent charitable organisation, which observes the values, principles, standards and good practice of the Age UK Federation; and consequently has been granted a licence to use the well-known name, Age UK Hertfordshire (AUKH), which is respected throughout the county.

Our mission is quite simply to “improve the lives of older people in Hertfordshire”, and work to ensure that older people in Hertfordshire are valued, able to live well and retain their independence throughout later life.

We provide detailed information about our organisation and the range of services we provide on our website www.ageuk.org.uk/hertfordshire

Main purpose of the post:

The purpose of the role is to coordinate the Befriending Service by carefully matching volunteers to visit an older lonely, isolated person in their own home to provide friendship and company.

Responsibilities/ Duties / tasks

- Receive and record referrals for the befriending scheme from a variety of health and social care professionals, voluntary organisations, or family and friends.
- Make contact with potential clients by undertaking initial telephone assessments and carrying out initial assessment visits, taking time to understand the needs of the clients and to assess suitability for the befriending scheme.
- Provide continued welfare support for clients, undertaking welfare calls and visits, signposting to local services and activities, and referring to, and liaising with, other professional and statutory agencies where necessary.
- Work with the Recruitment Volunteer Coordinator to actively recruit volunteers for the visiting service This will include interviewing potential volunteers and completion of DBS and references checks.
- Provide individual inductions for all new volunteers who are not able to attend formal induction recruited within the locality, ensuring that volunteers are appropriately trained to carry out their befriending role.
- Carefully match volunteers with a client to ensure compatibility, and personally introduce visiting volunteers to clients
- Maintain regular contact with volunteers and clients to offer ongoing support and advice
- Keep an up-to-date knowledge and understanding of local services and activities available, and ensure that all information given to clients is accurate
- Manage and organise own administration work, ensuring that it is accurate and meets quality targets
- Complete and record monitoring forms
- Respect the confidentiality and dignity of clients and their rights to make their own decision
- Promote volunteering throughout the district by using a variety of media, attending public events and generally raising the profile of Age UK Hertfordshire

- Maintain the Database, keeping up to date and accurate records
- Complete monthly statistics, and prepare reports and case studies as required
- Attend all training and meetings as requested by the Service Manager
- Work within AUKH policies and procedures and keep up to date with legislation for volunteer based projects;
- Work occasional evenings or weekends when necessary, for which time off in lieu will be given

'In addition to the duties and responsibilities list, the job holder is required to perform other duties assigned by the line manager from time to time which are commensurate with capability and status'.
