Criminal convictions

Some of our work brings us into contact with vulnerable people. For their safety, we may need to carry out a criminal records check (DBS check) for certain volunteer roles. Having a criminal conviction will not automatically disqualify you from volunteering with us.

Your information

Information on our database is strictly confidential and we do not pass on any personal data about you to outside organisations and/or individuals without your express personal consent, except in circumstances where the law permits us to do so, ie if someone is at risk of harm, or if we are told to provide information about you by a court or judge.

In accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, I agree that Age UK Leeds may hold and use personal information about me for volunteering reasons and to keep in touch with me. This information, including that contained in this application can be stored on both manual and computer files. It may be used by us on an anonymous basis for statistical reporting; information will be safely stored by us for as long as the relevant law and good practice stipulates, which is 7 years.
