

Age UK Milton Keynes is a local, independent charity that works with and for older people to make a real and positive difference that contributes to their wellbeing and quality of life. We rely on the vital donations given by our kind supporters. All money raised in Milton Keynes stays in Milton Keynes.

What your donation can provide

£20 Will help an older person receive a free benefits check to increase their monthly income.

£45 A visit by a befriender to a vulnerable older person in their own home

£50 Will train our Community I&A Officers, who provide practical and emotional support.
