

Leaving a Legacy

Make a difference to the lives of older people in Nottingham and Nottinghamshire.

Legacies are vital in making our work possible

Legacies are gifts of money, assets of personal possessions left in a will and each and every gift is vital in making our work possible. They make a huge difference in enabling us to provide our services, from helping reconnect those with limited friends or family, to advice and information on claiming benefits entitlements, to ensuring homes are warm and safe. We know how to help.

We appreciate any gift you might choose to leave us. We are a local charity, supporting over 40,000 people a year in Nottinghamshire.

How to leave a gift in your will

Having a will ensures that your wishes can be respected and that your property and assets benefit those you really care about.

We always recommend that you speak to a qualified professional when making or amending your will. We can help you find a solicitor through our Will Writing Service, if needed. If you choose to leave a gift to Age UK Nottingham & Nottinghamshire in your will, you will need specify the following details:

Age UK Nottingham & Nottinghamshire

Registered address: The Sybil Levin Centre, 577a Nuthall Road, Cinderhill, Nottingham. NG8 6AD

Registered charity number: 1067881

What kind of gift can I leave?

You can leave a specific sum of money or an item such as jewellery or a piece of art. You may leave a share in, or all of, what's left of the value of your estate after family and friends have been taken care of.

If you already have a will

If you already have a will and you want to include a gift to Age UK Nottingham & Nottinghamshire in it, you can ask a solicitor to add an amendment, called a codicil.
