

White Top Walkers

“Jingle Bells”

Chester, The River Dee, Eccleston and
A Christmas relax

Monday 16th December 2024

Be prepared for lots of mud! We tried the walk in a dry spell and it was still quite MUDDY!

Today we walk around Earl's Eye, along the River Dee out as far as the tiny village of Eccleston. The return to the city will be by way of Duke's Drive, a rather lovely tree lined lane.

Just a small picnic break in the church in Eccleston because at the walk's finish we can visit one of Chester's many Inns to enjoy a Christmas celebration (a drink and/or a meal, whatever you fancy!)

Meeting: Chester Railway Station

(so that we can use the Mreseyrail Services)

Start: 10:45am for 11:00am start

Distance: Approx. 6.5 miles
