Instruction to your bank/building society

Please pay Age UK Direct Debits from the account detailed in this instruction subject to the safeguards assured by the Direct Debit Guarantee. I understand that this instruction may remain with Age UK and, if so, details will be passed electronically to my bank/building society. Banks and building societies may not accept Direct Debit Instructions from some types of account.

3. Gift Aid Declaration

Please add to your donations through Gift Aid. If you are a UK tax payer, we can reclaim 25p for every £1 you donate.

Yes, I want Age UK and its partner organisations* to treat all donations I have made for the four years prior to this year, and all donations I make from the date of this declaration until I notify you otherwise, as Gift Aid donations. I am a UK tax payer and understand that if I pay less income tax and/or capital gains tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in that tax year it is my responsibility to pay any difference.

Banks and building societies may not accept direct debit instructions for some types of account.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay direct debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your direct debit Age UK will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request Age UK to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your direct debit, by Age UK or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
 - If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when Age UK asks you to.
- You can cancel a direct debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
