

Volunteers' Week 2024

During Volunteers' Week, Age UK is celebrating the incredible efforts of volunteers across our network of local and national organisations during 2023/24! Let's shine a light on the power of volunteering through some fantastic numbers:

In total, over 150,000 volunteers share their time, talent and support for the older people who need us most

LAST YEAR more than 5,840 new volunteers offered their help to Age UK

Volunteers helped to reduce loneliness through nearly 415,200 minutes of calls with older people in the last year with The Silver Line Helpline

AGE UK IS PROUD TO INVOLVE VOLUNTEERS IN A WIDE VARIETY OF ROLES, INCLUDING:
The Telephone Friendship Service
Charity Shops
Engagement Consultative Network
Local Age UK, Age Cymru, Age Scotland and Age NI organisations
Your Voice Engagement Panel
Charity Events
The Silver Line Helpline
Campaigns
Readers' Panel
Board of Trustees
Administration

EACH WEEK Age UK charity shops open for business thanks to the efforts of 3,889 volunteers

TOGETHER local Age UK, Age Cymru, Age Scotland and Age NI organisations involve 18,406 volunteers in community-based services and support for older people

6,115 older people have been supported with the help of volunteers in the Telephone Friendship Service

141,085 people share their time as e-Campaigners with Age UK, ensuring the Government listen to the needs of older people

